

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

James D. Harmon,
Petitioner,

v.

State of Alaska,
Respondent.

Supreme Court No. S-18623

Notice of Deficiency

Date of Notice: 2/8/2023

Court of Appeals No. A-13364

Trial Court Case No. 1JU-09-00708CI

On 1/17/2023, attorney Elizabeth Friedman filed opening petition for hearing paperwork on behalf of James Harmon, but no petition for hearing was filed. On 1/26/2023, James Harmon submitted an application for exemption from filing fee, a financial statement affidavit, and a prisoner account statement for the preceding six-month period. The above appellate case number has been assigned for tracking purposes only. Please use this case number on any future correspondence or filings in this case. No action can be taken on this matter and the case cannot be opened for the following reasons:

- The prisoner account statement for the preceding six-month period that was provided by James Harmon is not a certified copy. Under AS 09.19.090(b)(2), the prisoner account statement for the preceding six-month period must be a certified copy.

James Harmon must submit a certified copy of the prisoner account statement; the Department of Corrections usually affixes the statement with a “red” certified copy stamp along with a signature.

- No petition for hearing has been filed. A petition for hearing of the court of appeals Memorandum Opinion No. 7035 was due on 2/3/2023.

James Harmon must submit a certified copy of his prisoner account statement for the preceding six-month period by 3/13/2023. This deadline may be extended for good cause.

If a petition for hearing and a motion to accept late-filing, or a motion for extension of time to file the petition for hearing, is not filed on or before 2/22/2023, this file may be CLOSED. Any motion must state the reasons why the petitioner could not file the petition, or at least a motion to extend time, by 2/3/2023.
